EPISODE V WILD BEASTS IN COMMAND.

Mary, the chimp, sees Ralph's danger and brings a gun to Betty who kills the leopard. The captain, his plans frustrated, orders the men to get Ralph. The pair stand off the crew and barricade themselves in a cabin. The crew bring a ram and start to break in the door. "Mary", left alone takes pity on the jungle beasts in their cages on the ship and decides to liberate them. She goes from cage to cage freeing the animals. In a few seconds the deck is filled with snarling lions, ferocious tigers, leopards, monkeys, and a hundred other wild animals, all running back and forth tearing at and fighting each other in their frenzy of being let loose.

They rush upon the defenseless crew. A monster bengal tiger tears the captain to pieces. Those of the crew that are not killed leap overboard. In a few minutes the only human survivors are Betty and Ralph who are attempting to fight off a new enemy. The lions are at their door. In the panel ripped out by the ram a giant lion is squeezing thru. Ralph seizes a chair to beat off the brute.

"Mary" the chimpanzee, runs to the steering wheel and playfully begins to turn it. The great schooner slowly turns and heads in a new direction.

Back in the cabin Betty and Dean are facing the inevitable. Dean's strength is exhausted. Other lions join the one at the cabin. Suddenly the great oak door shivers and with a splintering of wood gives away.
